

Curriculum Vitae

PERSONAL INFORMATION

Sigurður Emil Pálsson (e. spelling: Sigurdur Emil Palsson)

POSITION IN THE ENISA MANAGEMENT BOARD

Member – representative of Iceland

WORK EXPERIENCE

[Add separate entries for each experience. Start from the most recent.]

2013 – present: Chief National Cyber Security Adviser, Ministry of Transport and Local Government (which is responsible for cyber security issues within the Government of Iceland). Chairman of the Icelandic Cyber Security Council since it was founded in 2015, the council has a coordinating role concerning cyber security issues within government and amongst public authorities.

1987-2013: Head of Emergency Preparedness, Icelandic Radiation Safety Authority. Work included coordination of Nordic research within radiological and nuclear safety and security and participation in international research and development in this field.

EDUCATION AND TRAINING

[Add separate entries for each course. Start from the most recent.]

Ph.D. (on local and global assessment of radioactive fallout from nuclear explosions, University of Iceland)
M.Sc. Environmental and Radiation Protection (University of Surrey, 1990)
B.Sc. Physics (University of Iceland)

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION (optional)

Memberships

other